Romalda Spalding has an excellent description in her book at Amazon, The Writing Road to Reading. In a way, this is my favorite cursive writing book as she makes cursive seem easy.The whole lesson is only six pages and can be taught in just a few classes. Truly, I've seen even small children learn to write in cursive in just two weeks using what she wrote.She taught several general rules like "All letters sit on the base line." Then she writes that you should teach the terms for the five strokes as you show how to connect the letters:A short upswing from the base lineA tall upswing from the base lineA short upswing that curves over to 2 on the clockA short dip that curves over to two on the clock!ou can read more about using her book for teaching reading by teaching writing.Usually, the capital letters do not connect with the rest of a word, yet these capitals letters can be connected to the rest of a word-A, C, E, H, J, L, M, N, R, U, X, Y.
